

FIRST CHINESE BOY'S CLUB IN THE WORLD IS IN 'FRISCO'S CHINATOWN

San Francisco, Nov. 6.—Young American club is the name of the latest organization in this city's Chinatown, the largest in the country. It is a marching athletic and debating club, composed exclusively of Chinese boys of from 9 to 18 years. Maj. Edgar Peixotto, founder of the juvenile society, the Columbia Park Boys, impression on the prince, who thanked them personally. Major Peixotto then suggested that the Chinese of San Francisco should have such an institution of their own.

All members are American-born Chinese and, though there are no religious restrictions, the very great majority are Chrisis responsible for the Young America club.

Chinese Boys' Club On March.

Last March Prince Tsai Tsun, head of the Chinese army, visited San Francisco, and Chinatown, turned out to greet him, employing the Columbia Park Boys' band and marching as part of the propaganda of welcome.

These youngsters made a big tians. So far as is known this is the only Chinese organization of its kind in the world.

Rosevelt is increasingly mentioned as a compromise between Taft and La Follette. But the Democrats can name a man on whom a majority of the people would prefer to compromise.